About US

The Atlanta Blues Baseball Club is 1 of 9 teams competing in the Sunbelt Georgia Collegiate Summer Baseball League (SBL).

The Atlanta Blues are owned by the Field of Dreams Academy, Inc. and its executive managing partners are Terry Johnson and Darren Jones.

The vision for the baseball club is to provide a program focused on player development, elite competitiveness, commitment to excellence, and spirits of courage, integrity, and perseverance.

Established in 2005 and operating in the metro Atlanta area, the Sunbelt League is a wood bat league that showcases talent from over 100 colleges and universities while providing exciting family entertainment to the community

Multiple SBL alum have signed and been drafted by Major League Baseball. The mission of the Sunbelt Baseball League is to "provide a first-class collegiate summer program dedicated to helping young college athletes achieve their dreams of playing at the professional level."

Since 2005 the Sunbelt Baseball League has been an official partner of the NCAA, USA Baseball, and Major League Baseball. Our goal is to assist our players achieve their dream of playing at the professional level.

Characteristics of an Atlanta Blues Player

What are the Characteristics of an Atlanta Blues Player?

It is a privilege to wear and represent our team. Every player plays a pivotal player in our team's success!

There are ten (10) key characteristics that all of our players will share:

1. A Hard Worker

Our players who shows up for everything on time and prepared to give his best effort every time they take the field, whether it's a practice or a game.

2. A Leader

Our players lead in their action and through words. They inspire their teammates to reach another level. They inspire their teammates to give it their all through their example. They buy into our program's philosophy and get their teammates to as well.

3. A Great Teammate

Our players support and respect their fellow teammates. They are accepting of all team members and assists them in getting better. They embrace their role no matter what it is and does it to the best of their ability, and whatever is best for the team.

4. A Competitor

Our players will do the little things it takes to win. Our players treat practice like it's a game. They want to win every drill, game, and contest. Our players possess a high desire to win; and understand the importance of their preparation to win; great competitors inspire their teammates to give more.

5. A Good Citizen

Our players represent the organization well on and off the field. Our players give back to the game and their community. Our players understand that a good citizen means doing the right thing even when it is the most difficult thing to do. Our players understand the importance of obtaining a good education.

Characteristics of an Atlanta Blues Player

6. A Playmaker

Our players not only know what to do but can do it. Our players step up and make the big plays when the team needs it most. They are always making plays. Our players are always studying the game so that they get better. Our players possess a level of confidence that gives him the strength to go out and perform.

7. Coachable

Our players who can take constructive criticism. Our players want to be coached and want to be told what they need to do to get better. Our players are respectful to everyone associated with our team. They make eye contact with their coaches; and aren't afraid to ask questions. Our players listen to their coach and not the stands.

8. Have Pride

Our players have pride in wearing and representing the program's gear. Our player love promoting our program. Players exemplify pride through their words and actions. Our players take pride in the little things and doing them well.

9. Dependable

Coaches love players who are always on time. Don't be late. Don't miss practices, events, or games. We love players who offer no excuses and no explanations. Coaches want players they can depend on both on and off the court to make the right decisions. Being dependable also means you're always there for a teammate in need.

10. Heart

Our players play with enthusiasm, courage, and spirit. Having heart means having and playing for a purpose beyond the scoreboard. When the score's out of reach, our players continue to play hard to honor the game. They play for purpose that means something to them. Our players never give up or give in.

These characteristics separate players from those who are good and great!

It's not always about talent, but what you do with that talent. It not always about the most athletically gifted person, but how do you develop your skills. It requires a lot of mental and physical fortitude, but your commitment to the journey.

That's why there are only a few players who can play and represent the Atlanta Blues!

Additionally, if a player needs to secure housing, we have a program where our players will be living in a student apartment in midtown Atlanta. The cost will be an additional sixteen hundred dollars ($1,600.00). This cost covers lease, and all utilities in his two/third bedroom unit.

We will play all of our home games at the Georgia State Baseball Complex. Players will have access to track and measure their performance with our Trackman Data package. The cost is $250 for the entire season.

Finally, we have secured some internships for our players. It is an opportunity to gain some professional experience, develop their skills and earn for money! Once they have registered, please have the player send over his resume and cover letter. (We have partnerships with Costco, UPS, Home Depot, and Delta Airlines providing our players summer jobs, and internships)

We are committed to fielding a team that will compete at a high level every game and on every play!

ATLANTA BLUES
